Health Education and Training Institute Higher Education Unit Learning Guides Policy

Policy Statement

Health Education and Training Institute is committed to providing students with clear and concise information about the unit of study through a basic framework of student-focused documentation related to learning and assessment in units.

Aims and Objectives

1. The Unit Learning Guide describes the learning and assessment requirements for each unit in one of two Frameworks:
 - a. Applied Mental Health Studies;
 - b. Psychiatric Medicine.
2. This policy describes the requirements for the preparation, approval and dissemination of this key resource.

Overview

3. This policy describes the requirements for the preparation of the Unit Learning Guide and ensures the learning and assessment requirements for the unit are presented in a manner consistent with the policy and according to the Framework of study.
4. The Unit Learning Guide provides detailed information to students in support of their learning and achievement of the unit learning outcomes by:
 - a. Providing details about teaching and learning activities;
 - b. Making explicit links between assessment activities and the unit learning outcomes;
 - c. Providing information about assessment tasks, including due dates, instruction for submission and details about the assessment criteria and standards; and

- d. Giving a clear description of what is expected of students in order to achieve the range of grades in the unit.

Definitions

5. For the purposes of this policy:
 - a. Learning Management System – refers to myHETI;
 - b. Records Management System – refers to TRIM.

Procedures

6. This policy should be read and understood in conjunction with relevant policies, including but not limited to:
 - a. Assessment Policy – Criteria and Standards-Based Assessment;
 - b. Student Academic Misconduct Policy;
 - c. Award Courses and Units Approval Policy.
7. The Unit Learning Guide must be created using the Unit Learning Guide Template approved by the Teaching and Learning Committee.
8. The material included in the Unit Learning Guide must conform to the mandatory content as set out in the Guidelines below.
9. Unit Learning Guides are prepared for each individual unit offered and contain information that has been approved in accordance with the Award Courses and Units Approval Policy. The Unit Learning Guide is updated accordingly following approved changes to a unit.
10. Where appropriate assessment due dates should be set for 5pm on a Wednesday, maximising the availability of academic and IT support for students submitting work.
11. Unit Learning Guides will be version controlled and stored in the Records Management System.
12. Unit Learning Guides produced in accordance with this policy will be made available to enrolled students through the Learning Management System two weeks prior to the commencement of the semester in which the unit is taught

13. The published electronic version of the Unit Learning Guide will be the authorised version.
