Entry Requirements – Postgraduate Course in Psychiatry

Award	Educational and other qualifications	Medical Registration	Occupational requirement	Specialisation enrolment	English language equivalence requirements IELTS (Academic)*
Graduate Certificate	• Undergraduate degree in medicine; or a postgraduate course work Doctor of Medicine, or equivalent.	Hold current medical registration in Australia or New Zealand.	At least one year of documented experience as a practising doctor.	• Any doctor meeting other requirements may enrol without a specialisation. Below are the requirements if specialisation is sought • Psychiatry students must be trainees, or Fellows, of the RANZCP. • General Practice students must be trainees, or Fellows, of the RACGP. • Rural and Remote Medicine students must be trainees, or Fellows, of the ACRRM; or demonstrate active rural or remote practice.	Overall band of 7.0 or better (with a score of no less than 6.0 in any band) or equivalent.
Graduate Diploma	• Graduate Certificate in Psychiatric Medicine (or prerequisite number of credit points i.e. 40); and • Undergraduate degree in medicine; or a postgraduate course work Doctor of Medicine, or equivalent.
Masters	• Graduate Diploma in Psychiatric Medicine (or prerequisite number of credit points i.e. 80); and • Undergraduate degree in medicine; or a postgraduate course work Doctor of Medicine, or equivalent.
Non award or stand- alone unit of study	• Undergraduate degree in medicine; or a postgraduate course work Doctor of Medicine, or equivalent.			• N/A except RANZCP trainees and non-accredited registrars in psychiatry who have with a letter of support from their local Director of Training and do not want to complete an award may enrol in the Postgraduate Course in Psychiatry.	Overall band of 7.0 or better (with a score of no less than 6.0 in any band) or equivalent.

*Please note English Language Requirement.