PD units or courses do not result in Higher Education Credit but students are eligible for receiving a certificate of participation or attainment Higher Education Non-Award Policy.
47. The fees charged by HETI Higher Education for:
 - a. Non-Award units of study are the same as those for units undertaken within an Award Course.
 - b. PD units of study may be lower (typically, but not necessarily, 25% lower for a 10 credit point equivalent unit of study) than the fees chargeable for the same units to students undertaking study leading to an Award Course.
48. Students enrolled in Non-Award units of study can have their enrolment transferred to the same units in an Award Course providing they meet the entry requirements for that course in accordance with the provisions of the HETI Higher Education Admissions Policy and Enrolment Policy <http://www.heti.edu.au/policies-and-procedures>. Successfully completed Non-Award units of study will be granted advanced standing for those units in the Award Course in these circumstances. Such students on enrolment to an Award Course would be entitled to apply for FEE-HELP.
49. Where a student who has enrolled in or completed PD units of study is subsequently accepted for enrolment in the same units in an Award Course, they will be required to undertake the assessments associated with those units in order to pass the units and will be liable to pay any difference between the fees originally paid for the PD units and the fees applicable at the time of enrolment. Such students will not however be required to repeat the study if it was undertaken.

Extenuating Circumstances

50. HETI Higher Education may, at its absolute discretion, vary the manner in which it applies these student fee liabilities, refunds and adjustment policies in individual cases where a student claims that extenuating circumstances apply. Approval is by the Director, Education and Training on the recommendation of the relevant Frameworks Coordinator.

51. Extenuating circumstances are events or circumstances which:
 - a. are beyond the person's control, i.e. the person is not responsible, directly or indirectly, for the situation. These events or circumstances must be unusual, uncommon or abnormal; and
 - b. must not make the full impact on the person until on or after the census date where the situation occurred:
 - i. before the census date, but worsened after that day; or
 - ii. before the census date, but the full effect or magnitude does not become apparent on or before that day; or
 - iii. on or after the census date; and
 - c. where the outcome has made it impracticable for the student to complete the course requirements; and they were unable to:
 - i. undertake the necessary private study required, or attend sufficient lectures or tutorials or meet other attendance requirements in order to meet the compulsory requirements; or
 - ii. complete the required assessable work; or
 - iii. complete other course requirements because of their inability to meet the above.
52. Students will need to prove their claim for extenuating circumstances by providing appropriate independent supporting documentation. HETI Higher Education will not approach doctors, hospitals, police, etc. to obtain documentation on behalf of the student. HETI Higher Education may seek verification from these agencies that a presented certificate was issued to the student.

Tuition Assurance

53. In the event that HETI Higher Education ceases for any reason to provide a course of study in which a student is enrolled, in accordance with its Tuition Assurance Policy, the student will be given the option of either an offer of a place in a similar course of study with an alternative Higher Education Provider, without any requirement to pay the alternative provider tuition fees for any replacement units; OR a refund of fees already paid to HETI Higher Education for any unit of study commenced but not completed because HETI Higher Education has ceased to provide the course of study.

Roles and Responsibilities

54. It is the responsibility of the student to inform HETI Higher Education in writing of a change in personal and contact details within 7 days of such change. If this written advice is not received, HETI Higher Education will not accept responsibility for correspondence that does not reach the recipient. Change of address may be notified via the Personal Details Variation Form.

Publication

55. These policies and procedures are published on the HETI website <http://www.heti.edu.au/> to ensure students have up to date and accurate information publicly available to them.
